Under the direction of former Phillie All-Star 2B MICKEY MORANDINI AND Diamond Academy's own FRANK MONASTERO this 6 WEEK hitting program offers the finest instruction and preparation for your upcoming High School Baseball Season.

This is not a beginner's camp but rather an advanced developmental hitting program to prepare high school baseball players (9th to 12th grade) for their upcoming season. This will be a highly organized, high repetition camp with a lot of live batting practice and individual instruction featuring the Phillies own Mickey Morandini and Frank Monastero, our area's finest amateur hitting instructor. With a 5 to 1 player to instructor ratio this program is open to the 1st 25 players who sign up and will include other professional hitting specialists from our area.

- Learn how to maximize bat speed and exit velocity
- Learn how to manage your swing with simple solutions that you can rely on
- Learn how to develop a hitting approach, one that can grow with you as you move from level to level
- Learn how to situational hit and become a hitter who can handle the bat, move runners up and score them from 3B in any situation
